

I am deeply concerned by this proposed change of policy and practice. I am a lay person without any legal training, but it seems evident that it is a serious infringement of the rights granted in the constitution under the ammendments guaranteeing free speech and protection from unlawful search and seizure.

Please reject this proposal.

Sincerely,

Sharon Forrest